

I would like to thank the FAA for taking steps to track the fate of animals shipped on planes. They are not baggage and deserve to be protected from the dangers they face during transport. It is important for the public to be aware of the airlines safety record in this regard. I strongly agree with the rule to implement this requirement. Please finalize this rule as soon as possible.

Karen Zier